

Summer Reading 2020

In-coming Freshmen:

On-level – Will read The Pearl by John Steinbeck. Students should annotate their novels as they read especially marking items of interest such as setting, characters, new vocabulary words, and important events. Notes in the margins, new vocabulary words circled and defined, as well as underlined or highlighted text are expected and will be evaluated. On the first day of school a worksheet will be given and the annotated novel will be submitted for a grade. The worksheet and the annotated novel will each result in quiz grades.

Honors – Will read The Pearl by John Steinbeck and Tuck Everlasting by Natalie Babbitt. Students should annotate both novels as they read especially marking items of interest such as setting, characters, new vocabulary words, and important events. Notes in the margins, new vocabulary words circled and defined, as well as underlined or highlighted text are expected and will be evaluated. On the first day of school a worksheet will be given for both novels and the annotated novels will be submitted for a grade. The annotations and the worksheets will result in quiz grades.

Students enrolled after July 20 should contact the instructor for adjusted assignment guidelines.
